Marcus Child returns to Australia

He achieved the highest rating ever for his presentation at last year's TEC Chair Conference. So we asked UK Speaker Marcus Child to return to Australia and New Zealand to deliver the 2011 All TEC Days this September.

His presentation "Leading an Engaged Culture" will inspire CEOs to develop a corporate culture that achieves high-quality results for customers, shareholders and co-workers.

Delivered in his unique, energetic style, Marcus will use case studies, anecdotes and quotes to entertain members as he demonstrates how to inspire and imbue positivity throughout your organisations with practical and effective tools. You will leave the workshop fully engaged and ready to create a positive change in your businesses and your personal lives.

This will also be a great opportunity for members to bring a number of delegates from their companies to the All TEC Day and drive the learnings from Marcus deeper inside their business - there will be a lot of interest for this so please book your delegates early!
